FOREWORD

“Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee” -Isaiah 60:1-2(KJV)

A major characteristic of the latter times, as envisioned by Prophets Isaiah, Daniel, Malachi and other Prophets the Lord God brought into the spirit of the last days, is DARKNESS.

Common dictionaries define darkness as:

1. Absence of light or illumination
2. Iniquity and wickedness
3. Absence of moral or spiritual values

The above three lines of definition may grant slight insight into what the Prophets of old saw in their spirits about the days that shall close the days of man's labour upon the earth, as recorded in Exodus 20:9:

“Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work:”

The Prophets of old saw this darkness manifesting in these three distinct segments of human life and endeavor:

- (a) The Nations
- (b) The Church
- (c) The Families

So much iniquity, wickedness and breakdown of spiritual and moral values are currently witnessed in these segments of human expressions.

Two generations exist side by side on the earth today:
The BLESSED generation
The CURSED generation

This is akin to the two generations on earth before the flood: The ABEL generation and the CAIN generation, with the former being submissive to and controlled by God and the latter submitting to satan and also being controlled by him.

The sad part of the whole story is that the cursed generation has and is still finding it's way into the midst of God's people, the Church. THIS OUGHT NOT SO TO BE!

The Most High God is returning to His house at this last hour and shall draw a Surveyor's line, according to Zechariah 1:16:

*"Therefore thus says the Lord:
I am returning to Jerusalem with mercy;
My house shall be built in it," says the Lord of hosts,
"And a surveyor's line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem." - Zech. 1:16-(NKJV)*

And again, in Malachi 3:18:

"Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not-(KJV)

The church as a Great house-(2Tim. 2:20), has welcomed the evil seed and also allowed it to thrive for long. The spiritual leadership in the Church has been most guilty in this affair. But the Lord God shall not tolerate this 'Abomination of mixture' to continue...He is blowing the trumpet and also sounding the alarm, to call a church (ekklektos) out of the present visible church (ekklessia). These 'called out ones' is the new generation that is emerging at these closing days of the church age-Revelation 12:5

This book: 'A new generation is emerging' sets out to trace the history of the present day perversions in the ekklessia and that the Lord surely has His own plan to raise a new generation from the present church systems, to accomplish His purpose on the earth.

I recommend this book for the thirsty ones in God's house; those who aspire to scale the utmost height and desire a place among the NEW GENERATION THAT IS EMERGING!

Shalom. Maranatha!

Chapter One

A NEW GENERATION IS EMERGING

(God's Special End-Time Squad.)

Introduction

The world has fast become a global village, due to technological advancement, especially in the field of communication. Information technology has made tremendous breakthroughs such that information spreads out to virtually every nook and corner of the world.

So many things have changed as a result of this. Socio-cultural exchange has advanced so much that ideas; ideologies etc are easily shared and imbibed by people all over the globe. People are now exposed to so many things they would never had thought about, let alone knowing and participating in.

All over this global village, the message of blending, conformity or compromise has become very strong, and everybody or group of people, irrespective of color, race, religion, social and political status or inclination, is responding to the message.

The result is the removal, shifting or compromising of laid down standards and norms. Nothing is absolute any more. There is therefore now neither black nor white, good nor evil. These established truths of life have become relative terms in our present world today. If you believe that something black is now white or vice versa, it becomes so to you.

Wickedness, crime, injustice, corruption and all forms of immorality have become a common denominator in the life of the world. We are now taught and made to believe that you are free to do just anything you want, any way you want, anytime you want, anyhow you want and anywhere you want to achieve your goal. The important thing is to achieve your desired goal. The end therefore justifies the means.

This is what has completely taken over the world, with no exception; people in high and low places are overtaken. The politicians, academicians, professionals, the clergy (bishops, reverends, pastors etc) including the Pope. The students, applicants, traders, business men and women. The corporate organizations both big and small. None has been left out; the rich and the poor, men and women, young and old alike, including Christians, who are meant to be different.

Everybody knows, sees and in fact to a large extent understands this very situation, but no natural person has the ability to successfully confront and address it.

This situation has now become generally accepted as the norm, such that anyone who dares to be different is tagged uncivilized, old fashioned and archaic.

Sometimes, in view of the present state of affairs in our world, one may be tempted to wonder why Sodom and Gomorrah got destroyed as a result of wickedness and gross iniquity, and our present world, which has a long time broken the records these cities set and even gone ahead to set new records in wickedness, is yet to be destroyed. (Genesis 18)

There is a clear explanation for all of these in the scriptures. The Apostle Peter, in 2Pet. 3:9-10 tells us that:

"The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the heavens and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up."

We are living in the last days, and Paul, writing to young Timothy in 2Tim. 3:1 predicted that it would be so at this time of the end.

2 Timothy 3:1-8

"But understand this, that in the last days will come, set in perilous times of great stress and trouble hard to deal with and hard to bear. For people will be lovers of self and utterly self-centered, lovers of money and aroused by an inordinate greedy desire for wealth, proud and arrogant and contemptuous boasters. They will be abusive blasphemous, scoffing, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy and profane. They will be without natural human affection callous and inhuman, relentless admitting of no truce or appeasement; they will be slanderers false accusers, troublemakers, intemperate and loose in morals and conduct, uncontrolled and fierce, haters of good. They will be treacherous betrayers, rash, and inflated with self-conceit. They will be lovers of sensual pleasures and vain amusements more than and rather than lovers of God. For although they hold a form of piety true religion, they deny and reject and are strangers to the power of it their conduct belies the genuineness of their profession. Avoid all such people turn away from them. For among them are those who worm their way into homes and captivate silly and weak-natured and spiritually dwarfed women, loaded down with the burden of their sins and easily swayed and led away by various evil desires and seductive impulses. These weak women will listen to anybody who will teach them; they are forever inquiring and getting information, but are never able to arrive at a recognition and knowledge of the Truth. Now just as Jannes and Jambres were hostile to and resisted Moses, so these men also are hostile to and oppose the Truth. They have depraved and distorted minds, and are reprobate and counterfeit and to be rejected as far as the faith is concerned.” (Amplified)

As realistic and factual as this situation might be, it does not, and cannot negate the truth. The truth is constant and never changes. Why? Because God is the Truth and the Truth is God. Evil remains evil and Good remains good. Righteousness remains righteousness while Unrighteousness remains unrighteousness.

Chapter Two

THIS GENERATION

The word or term generation, is vastly used in the scriptures, both in the old and the new testaments, and convey very important meanings. Generally speaking, this term, according to the encyclopedia Britannica, the Webster's Dictionary and various dictionaries of the English language, is used to describe or depict all people living at the same time or approximately of the same age. It refers to a group of genetically related living organisms constituting a single step in the line of descent.

In its literary meaning a generation normally refers to a group of people who live within a space of thirty years, because it is assumed that within this period of time a set of people must have grown to have their own family and offsprings.

The Greek and Hebrew dictionary of the bible refer to a generation as a revolution of time or a dwelling age.

In scripture, there are about three shades of meanings or usage of the word generation, and they all are interrelated and also incorporate the definitions we already put forward above from the lexicon. We can find these usages spread throughout the old and the new testaments.

1. The first meaning is applied to reproduction of offspring in which case it refers to an individual reproduction line, like a book or line of genealogy. The generation of some body or some people or a clan or even a nation. This usage is applied in Gen. 5:1, Gen.37:2 and Matt.1:7.

*"This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him.
(Gen.5:1)*

“These are the generations of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and the lad was with the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives: and Joseph brought unto his father their evil report.” (Gen.37:2)

“So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.” (Mat.1:17)

The Hebrew word used here in the Genesis passages and translated as generation is 'tol-dah' pronounced (to-led-aw) meaning descent, family or history of birth. While the Greek word used in the Matthew passage as generation is 'genea' pronounced (ghen-eh-ah) meaning an age, a period of time or even a people or nation. This first usage can be summarized as a list of successive period of descent from father to son.

2. The second usage is as a period of time which defers like intervals. Here it does not mark a definite period of time but rather it is used as successive divisions of time, for instance marking either a definite period of time or an indefinite period of time. For example, in Deut. 23:2-3 we see the usage to mark a definite period of time.

“A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the LORD. An Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the LORD for ever: (Deut.23: 2-3)

In these two verses of scripture, the Hebrew word translated as generation is 'dor-dor' pronounced (dore, dore). This refers to a definite period or ages. Ten generations here means that for a specific period not less than 300 years from the birth of a bastard no person from that family lineage can enter the congregation of the Lord. The same sanction was placed on the Moabites. We know that Moabites and Ammonites are the descendants of the sons who were products of the incest committed by Lot and his daughters. These people even though the Lord forbade Israel from molesting them, they were always forming a league with others against Israel. Worthy of note also is the fact that ten is the number of tribulation and of new beginning after the tenth generation, about 300 years after, a pardon is offered automatically to wave away the curse effect of the abomination.

Then on the other hand in Isaiah 58:12, and Psalm 45:17, the word generation is used as an expression of an indefinite period.

"And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in." (Isa.58:12)

"I will make thy name to be remembered in all generation therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever." (Psa.45:17)

3. The third usage of the word generation denotes person or persons actually constituting a specific generation, as representatives of its state or character. It is particular as in such expression like 'This Generation', which is the subject of our discourse in this chapter.

In Matt. 11:16; 17:17, Phil.2:15 and Isa. 53:8 for example we find this usage.

"But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the market place and calling unto their fellows, And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented". - (Matt.11:16&17)

"Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me." - (Matt.17:17)

"That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world "- (Phil.2:15)

"He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken." - (Isa.53:8)

In these passages it is the same word 'dor-dor' (dore - dore) that is translated as generation and nation supporting our earlier observations. In each of these passages generation here refers to a specific or particular generation identified by certain parameters.

This third usage fits more appropriately into our discussion, THIS (PRESENT) GENERATION.

This expression is vastly used in the scriptures, especially in the new testament. We see in some of the following scriptures we will examine, the peculiarities and close similarities between the various generations referred to.

The first use or mention of the expression, THIS GENERATION in the scripture was by the Almighty God in the book of Genesis chapter 7.

"And the Lord said unto Noah, Come thou and thy entire house into the ark for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation. Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female. Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth. For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth. And Noah did according unto all that the Lord commanded him. And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth." - (Gen.7:1-5)

There is certain state of affairs or common general disposition of this very generation referred to here by God, which informed the kind of drastic decision God took and executed against this generation. It was so terrible and appalling before God that he decided to wipe them off the surface of the earth. Let us examine a few of them:

“And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose. And the Lord said My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years. There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And it repented the Lord that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart. And the Lord said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth;

The first thing we see here is some perversion of God's original order. Some unequal yoking between the sons of God and the daughters of men. The corruption of the heart and mind of men became great. Wickedness then increased and abominable things began to take place so much that God felt that the only way to curb this is a total annihilation of mankind. All kinds of things began to take place because man went outside God's ordained pattern. The earth became filled with violence and humans lost full control of themselves.

The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth. There was:

- (a) Population increase resulting in the production of beautiful girls.

- (b) Lust came in with lack of satisfaction.
- (c) Inter-marriage of different species that produced giants.
- (d) Wickedness increased due to evil imaginations of the heart.
- (e) Violence now became the order of the day because envy and jealousy increased with insatiable lusts of all kinds.

These were the things that characterized this very generation in focus. Let us check out for other generations.

Next in the book of Deuteronomy chapter one we read another pronouncement by God to another set of people referred to as THIS GENERATION. In verse 35 we read thus:

“And the Lord heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and swore, saying, Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I swear to give unto your fathers,” (Deut.1:35) to their past experiences. How did God arrive at referring to this people as an evil generation?

Now these are the same people who cried to God while under the oppressive rule of the Egyptians and the Lord miraculously by a strong arm delivered them from the Egyptian bondage, causing them to pass through the overflowed red sea as unto a dry ground while the Egyptians perished in the sea. This same God who had proved to them His power and ability to deliver and turn impossibility to possibility, promised them a land flowing with milk and honey, which they proved to be true. Suddenly because they saw some giants, probably descendants of the products of that unapproved marriage of Genesis chapter 6 now reduced God to that of grasshoppers, a weakling, unable to keep His promises. A wicked God who brought them out of Egypt just to destroy them in the wilderness.

“All the Israelites grumbled and deplored their situation, accusing Moses and Aaron, to whom the whole congregation said, Would that we had died in Egypt! Or that we had died in this wilderness! Why does the Lord bring us to this land to fall by the sword? Our wives and little ones will be a prey. Is it not better for us to return to Egypt? And they said one to another, Let us choose a captain and return to Egypt. Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of Israelites. And Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, who were among the scouts who had searched the land, rent their clothes, And they said to all the company of Israelites, The land through which we passed as scouts is an exceedingly good land. If the Lord delights in us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us, a land flowing with milk and honey. Only do not rebel against the Lord, neither fear the people of the land, for they are bread for us. Their defense and the shadow [of protection] is removed from over them, but the Lord is with us. Fear them not. But all the congregation said to stone [Joshua and Caleb] with stones. But the glory of the Lord appeared at the Tent of Meeting before all the Israelites.

And the Lord said to Moses, How long will this people provoke (spurn, despise) Me? And how long will it be before they believe Me [trusting in, relying on, clinging to Me], for all the signs which I have performed among them? I will smite them with the pestilence and disinherit them, and will make of you [Moses] a nation greater and mightier than they.” - (Num. 14:2-12)

This generation referred to as an evil generation is characterized by (1) Faithlessness (2) Unfaithfulness (3) Unbelief (4) Blasphemy (5) Fearfulness (6) Ingratitude. They could not be appealed to or reasoned with. They were set in their own ways and were bent on carrying out their threats to Moses and Aaron and by implication the Almighty God. This people despised and dishonored God and that earned them that label- This Evil Generation.

Long after the events that characterized these generations mentioned above, we read from the new testament our Lord Jesus referring to another generation as This Generation.

It is interesting to note that nothing seems to have changed. The things that characterized 'This Generation' earlier discussed are virtually the same as this one Jesus addressed with the same term. Let us examine the usage by the Lord, this time in the new testament.

We start from the book of Matthew:

"But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented. For The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here. The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none. Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation." - (Matt. 11:16-17; 12:41-45)

"And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet. For as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation. And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation." - (Acts. 2:40)

From these few scriptures, we see that the generations referred to here, based on their ways of life, their attitude and dispositions, nothing complimentary was said about them. Just like we saw earlier, these generations are 'This Evil Generation', 'Untoward Generation', 'Wicked Generation', 'Ungrateful Generation', 'Doubtful, Unbelieving, and 'Faithless Generation that must see before they believe.

With this background information presented above, we are now well prepared for our study in this chapter on This Present Generation.

THIS PRESENT GENERATION.

This present generation denotes a particular generation under review. Just as each of the various generations we had looked at from both the old and new testaments focused on those that lived in those worlds or nations; the world of Noah, Lot, Jonah, John, The Pharisees and Sadducees, Jesus and his Disciples. This present generation denotes the present world and its systems covering the entire earth presently in existence, made up of Europe, America, Asia, Africa etc. the people that dwell in them, whether they are white or black or red or brown. All constitute THIS (present) GENERATION.

The things that characterize this generation compare adequately with that of the generations that God and the Lord Jesus described, qualified, cursed and condemned. In fact this generation, being the generation of the end time has all the evils and abominations of all the previous generations put together. And the scripture already predicted accurately what this generation would be like.

In 2Timothy chapter 3 from verse 1 we read:

2Tim 3:1 "BUT UNDERSTAND this, that in the last days will come (set in) perilous times of great stress and trouble [hard to deal with and hard to bear].

2Tim. 3:2 For people will be lovers of self and [utterly] self-centered, lovers of money and aroused by an inordinate [greedy] desire for wealth, proud and arrogant and contemptuous boasters. They will be abusive (blasphemous, scoffing), disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy and profane.

2Tim. 3:3 [They will be] without natural [human] affection (callous and inhuman), relentless (admitting of no truce or appeasement); [they will be] slanderers (false accusers, troublemakers), intemperate and loose in morals and conduct, uncontrolled and fierce, haters of good.

2Tim. 3:4 [They will be] treacherous [betrayers], rash, [and] inflated with self-conceit. [They will be] lovers of sensual pleasures and vain amusements more than and rather than lovers of God.

2Tim 3:5 For [although] they hold a form of piety (true religion), they deny and reject and are strangers to the power of it [their conduct belies the genuineness of their profession]. Avoid [all] such people [turn away from them].

2Tim 3:6 For among them are those who worm their way into homes and captivate silly and weak-natured and spiritually dwarfed women, loaded down with [the burden of their] sins [and easily] swayed and led away by various evil desires and seductive impulses.

2Tim 3:7 [These weak women will listen to anybody who will teach them]; they are forever inquiring and getting information, but are never able to arrive at a recognition and knowledge of the Truth.

2Tim 3:8 Now just as Jannes and Jambres were hostile to and resisted Moses, so these men also are hostile to and oppose the Truth. They have depraved and distorted minds, and are reprobate and counterfeit and to be rejected as far as the faith is concerned.” – (2Tim.3:1-8. AMP)

Let us examine what the apostle Paul by the Spirit of prophecy declared in the above scriptures. He says that this end-time generation will be characterized by a time of great stress and trouble very hard to deal with and to bear. Does this sound to you like the socio- political realities of this time around the globe? The world economy is in great distress. Summit upon summit has brought no solution; rather the problems develop into a hydra headed problem. The best economic theories have been rubbished by the kind of economic conditions emerging everyday across the globe. This is exactly what the scripture says in Luke 21 when the Lord said that at this time great trouble will come upon the world, distress of nations with perplexity. In order words, trouble and anguish of nations in bewilderment without resources, left wanting, embarrassed, in doubt, not knowing which way to turn. We shall examine this more closely later. Look across the globe from Europe and America to Asia and Africa etc. It is the same story. There is great agitation, civil unrest, demonstrations, even in countries such as had never happened in the past. Governments across the world, even those with the best economy, are no longer able to meet the usual basic needs of their citizens and these people are demanding for at least the status quo (which is no longer possible)

In the second verse, we are told about the general attitude of people in this generation. Self-centeredness, inordinate desire and pursuit of money and wealth. Pride and arrogance were to characterize the people. Today people are ready to do anything; cheat, lie, kill and betray anybody, including best friends, spouses, children and family members, just to get money and wealth to boost their egos and to feel above all. People in government and public places loot the public treasury without restraint. They amass such amount of wealth that they and their future generations cannot utilize. Madness has overtaken the people of this world in this area. It is no longer strange to find a public office holder carting away billions of dollars belonging to the state, into his private coffers and feel convinced he has done nothing wrong. They just feel they are being smart, and a lot of people will agree with them. They have no regard for life or for anybody whatsoever. In verse 3 we read that men shall become callous, insensitive and inhuman. They will be ready to destroy any one on their pathway. They will not be appeasable should anyone offend them. They will hate people who are upright and would rather destroy them to move them out of their wicked ways.

One other very common characteristic of this end time generation mentioned above is the high level of ungodliness. People can spend money to listen and watch displays of satanic things, enjoy sensual pleasures but they cannot stand anything that has to do with God or His name mentioned. You can do whatever you like, say whatever you like, but do not ever mention Jesus or God. They are haters of God and all that is good. This is the spirit of this generation.

Another mark of this end time generation is that they will be loose in morals. Men and women, young and old will have no regard for morals. That we see Sodomy has been enshrined in the constitution of many nations and those who are opposed to this are severely punished. The marriage institution has been bastardized even by the church. The same things we read about Sodom and Gomorrah are happening in greater dimension. This, the Lord Jesus predicted. And tell me how this generation can go free if Sodom and Gomorrah was destroyed for it. Homosexuality is one thing that characterized Sodom. In the past very few depraved people practiced this in the secret because it was an abomination. Today people do it boldly and openly. They now even have legal backing and rights to do whatever any other normal human does. One day I felt a raging anger in my spirit when in a so-called Christian forum a white-collar minister declared that homosexuals are a blessing to the society. An American MP who had been vocal against homosexuality came on CNN to declare that he has repented of his position on homosexuality. He said they are good people. This was because he suddenly discovered that his only son is an unrepentant gay. America has consistently propagated the deadly poison of "gay rights" and as expected other European and even African governments have joined the bandwagon. People are afraid to take a stand for righteousness. Even though people know this is evil and should not be encouraged, they are not able to speak out because they are intimidated and threatened; their business and political concerns are threatened by the cartel. Many celebrities in all spheres of life now boldly confess they are gay. Even the Pope could not come out to condemn this terrible evil. But you see the term gay masks the real status of these deviant people. They are not gay at all. They are depraved degenerate. They are sodomites, homosexuals. When they are called by their right name it conveys their proper situation to the world.

Family values are being destroyed. Children do not have any regard for their parents. That is what verse 3 above is saying. They will be disobedient to parents. From the scriptures we know that this is an express way to destruction and sudden death. The bible commandment for children to obey their parents is the only one with a blessing, and a curse by implication, attached. "that ye may live long" (Exod. 20:12) "for it is pleasing to God." (Col.3:20).

Children, who dishonor or disobey their parents, displease God and are shortening their life span upon the earth. Outright disregard of this commandment of God is what the society teaches children. Before now it was a western philosophy in the name of children rights. Now it has spread all over the world. In the same way the commandment for wives to obey and reverence their husbands was rubbished by the theory of women emancipation and equal right. Now the entire home and marriage institution are being destroyed.

The passage also spoke about the religious life or disposition of this generation. The bible says this generation shall be very religious but never godly. They are satisfied with the form of godliness, but they deny the power, which is the reality in the person of Christ Jesus; the express image of God. Hebrews 1:3 says that He, Jesus, is the sole expression of the glory of God, the Light-being, the out-ricing or radiance of the divine, and He is the perfect imprint and very image of God's nature. (Amp)

Here we see that apart from those who clearly declare their hatred and non -recognition of God, There are the vast portion of this generation who claim to love God and believe in Him and His ways; who like the ritual of worship and the identity of Christianity, which has become fashionable, but they do not want any commitment to His ways and laws. They go to church and participate in the church programs, but their way of life is a far cry from God's ways. They are in the church but not of the church, just as the true worshippers of God are in the world but not of the world. So you find even people in government who go as far as establishing church meetings in their offices, and organize regular or even daily prayers, but the same people loot the treasury, practice deep occultism and perpetrate all forms of atrocities. They are ready to kill anybody who points out to them the evil in their ways.

What about the ministers of the gospel of Jesus Christ? Many, in fact the majority of them are cut up in the web of the ways of this present end time generation. Archbishops, Bishops, General Overseers, Pastors, Apostles and Prophets, the Reverends, etc and their congregations have now become more worldly than the world. They have rebelled against God who they claim they serve. They have become materialistic. Everything described in the above scriptures has not left them out. They are deeply involved in the looting of the church treasury, impoverishing the members of the church to satisfy their insatiable lust for money, wealth and fame. They are ready to eliminate anybody on their way to achieving their aim. Ministers and pastors are reported to have poisoned others to take their positions in the church. They have mastered the art of deception like the politicians. They now employ all forms of methods, including the practice of occultism, witchcraft and sorcery to get and hold their members and to achieve their aims. Many of these people wear their sparkling long white and colored robes, but underneath it is a box of cankerworms. They live in immorality, defiling their young and old female members, even the wives of their members, as well as that of their fellow ministers. Like we read of the previous generations, they withstand the truth and hate to death those that declare the true gospel of the kingdom. Like in the days of Ezekiel, many of these men who were genuinely called and commissioned by God have gone astray with the people to serve other gods. The competition is very grave now as to which minister has the largest congregation, whether or not they are true Christians. Who has the most magnificent building, the largest auditorium for meeting? Who possesses more vehicles of assorted kinds and with the latest technology? Who has more private jets, and who is more influential in the society and in government circles. The ministers of the gospel of God are now those leading men and women out of God's will and away from His holy laws. They have also desecrated the holy institution of marriage.

They have perverted the truth of the bible, twisting it to suit their selfish sensual desires. They teach and encourage divorce in the church, themselves spearheading it by divorcing and remarrying at will, with flimsy reasons. What is it we find in the world that cannot be found in the church of this generation? Of course the judgement and curses placed upon the past generations who walked in these ways, are hanging upon this generation, and the church inclusive. If you partake of their sins, be assured you will partake of their plagues. That is God's standard and nobody can change it.

Sometimes we wonder why people who seemingly know the truth about God can fall so low to do most of these things. They are in the end-time generation and some yield themselves to fulfill the negative prophecies of this time. Know also that the bible has predicted that this generation will know great deception and delusion. That is why even those who are doing evil and walking in unrighteousness are still performing miracles. 2Tim. 3:13 tells us that evil men shall wax strong, deceiving people and being deceived. These men are on the increase. This is because they are already deluded, they go ahead to lead others into delusion. Many of these men will continue to perform miracles even after it has become obvious that the Spirit of God has left them and their followers. We are cautioned in Luke. 21:8, about this level of deception through even the working of miracles by men who are seeking to stand in the place of Christ to lure people to them and their master devil. The bible calls this kind of miracles, signs and wonders by those walking against God 'lying wonders' or 'pseudo miracle' aimed at deceiving those that see them.

2Thess. 2:9 - 12 tells us that:

“The coming [of the lawless one, the antichrist] is through the activity and working of Satan and will be attended by great power and with all sorts of [pretended] miracles and signs and delusive marvels—[all of them] lying wonders. And by unlimited seduction to evil and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing (going to perdition) because they did not welcome the Truth but refused to love it that they might be saved. Therefore God sends upon them a misleading influence, a working of error and a strong delusion to make them believe what is false, in order that all may be judged and condemned who did not believe in [who refused to adhere to, trust in, and rely on] the Truth, but [instead] took pleasure in unrighteousness."

(AMP.)

This end time generation is also marked with great natural disasters. Unlimited uprising of nations against other nations, seeking control. People senselessly killing themselves. We have been witnessing great earthquakes, landslides, flooding, fire disasters, and crashes in the air, on land and in the waters. These things are happening so frequently that nations cannot cope with the outcome. All these are curses that follow the kind of life on the earth.

"And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken."

This generation, wicked and perverse; is cursed and doomed because of their ways. This entire generation is fast heading to a precipice, and everybody now knows and feels it. People are living in fear. In Sudan, Syria, Egypt and many other countries of the world, including Nigeria in West Africa, people are living in great fear of being attacked or blown up by bomb, or slaughtered in a most gruesome manner. In Europe and America, the threat of terrorists attacks give government and their agencies sleepless moments every day. In Europe and America we see the extent of the madness of this end time generation. Where both adults and children alike, can wake up any day and walk into a supermarket, a school, and other public places and begin to shoot and kill people as though they are acting a movie and just having fun, even though they are real. Lives are wasted. The United States of America is yet to recover, if it can ever recover, from the effect of 9/11 attack. Man is fast coming to its fullness in manifestations of wickedness, just as the sons of God are coming to maturity. Man without God is worse than a beast. This is what man is fast becoming. The world has always rejected God who made it and sustains it by His power. Man feels he is in charge here and can make anything he likes out of it. This delusion is so deep that man can no longer understand truth. Man can make 'test tube' babies and so has concluded that he can create and so what is the big deal about God and creation. Scientists are using the knowledge from God to now fight God. They are now seriously working with the devil to spite God. They are working to create their own immortality through cloning and preservation of human organs for their own 'incarnation.' The iron man is a project they are pursuing vigorously. Now you can have metal legs that can sprint much faster than normal. And men now prefer the metal parts over the natural body parts. The scientists with the occultists are working together with their master Satan to control virtually everything on earth. Now they can use outlawed chemical weapons against others with no traces of the source, so that the user cannot be held responsible.

My dear reader, this world, like predicted in the scriptures, is about to explode. Many are today being deceived as the enemy is bringing forth counterfeit of virtually everything God has done. We know that the high point of God's redemption plan for man is the attainment of immortality, which we are all looking forward to. Now man with the devil is promising a New World order where pains and sorrows will be no more. Where people no longer live in fear. You just do whatever you like to do. Nobody will bother you with penalty for sin. A free world where you can marry a dog or a rat, if you so desire and nobody can stop you or even query you. This is not new. We saw it happen in Egypt with Pharaoh's magicians and with Jezebel's prophets of Baal. God will still allow all these to continue until man's time is fulfilled. There will yet be a repeat of the Egypt contest and Mount Carmel contest, but in a greater dimension. This is what the Lord has said and I wholly believe it.

In 1kings18: 17 - 39, the people became confused as to who is the true God. Ahab and his idolatrous wife, Jezebel has led the people away from God to worship Baal. But there came a day of separation and determination of the true God. All the 400 prophets of Baal face Elijah in the contest. At the end, He manifested Himself as the only true God. The people were no more deceived as they shouted "The Lord, He is God, the Lord, He is God".

In Egypt, (Exod. 7:10-12) when Pharaoh demanded for a sign from Moses and Aaron, by the word of the Lord, Aaron threw down his rod and it became a serpent. Pharaoh commanded his magicians to do the same but Aaron's rod swallowed up the rest and they confessed that "this is the finger of God". God proved Himself as the true God through His servants.

In the midst of all these woes and dooms, where is God? Is He in the picture? What is He doing? Will He just one day wipe off this entire generation with a flood like in Noah's day? Or rain down hails of fire as in the days of Lot in Sodom? Or send the church into exile to be punished by non-believers?

God has promised His genuine and obedient children or the church, special blessing and outpouring of His power in this end time, more than in the time past. He said He will bring the former and the later rain in one month. (Joel.2:23) This indicates that all the glorious experiences we have read in the scriptures and the ones we read from prophets of God that we have known, many who have gone across to glory; God will combine them together and bring them to this end-time to prove His great power over His own. In this same way, all the curses and judgement on the wicked in all the generations past, will be put together and visited upon this generation. The bible says such calamities that will befall this generation would be such as has never existed before and will never exist thereafter.

“For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.” (Matt.21:21)

In each of the generations, God always left Himself with witnesses against the wicked generation. This is God's pattern. In the case of Noah's world, as God brought judgement upon the inhabitants, He kept and raised a generation of witnesses; Noah and his household, including the animals. Those who are different. And of course before then He had taken away Enoch to Himself.

In Lot's world, God raised a people out of Sodom, Lot and his household, as a witness to that generation. We shall examine these witnesses as we go on in the proceeding chapters. The bible says in Acts 14:17 that God will not fail to leave Himself a witness. Therefore out of this terrible and hopeless wicked and perverse generation, God is raising A NEW GENERATION unto Himself.

Chapter Three

A NEW GENERATION

We have in the last chapters, carefully examined the various generations in the past. Their characteristics, their ways and their sins. Then their outcome. We also saw that God in each of these generations that passed away would always leave witnesses to Himself against the condemned generation.

Noah's And Enoch's Generation

Enoch: From the book of Genesis chapter 5 and from verse 6 we read about Enoch who in the midst of a world that never minded about God, but went on in their wicked, idolatrous and adulterous lives, lived to please God. This man was a true prophet of God who knew the mind of God, walked in it and preached it.

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.”(Jude 1:14-16)

"And Enoch lived sixty and five years, and begat Methuselah: And Enoch walked with God after he begat Methuselah three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters: And all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years: And Enoch walked with God." (Gen.5:21-24)

“By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God."

(Heb.11:5)

Enoch by his works and walk set up his generation or world for condemnation.

Noah: In chapter 6 of Genesis we read the account of Noah. Noah lived and walked righteously in the midst of a terrible people. We looked at the characteristics of these people. Right from Enoch's days these people have lived as though there is no God. Just like in this end-time where people have no regard for God but serve mammon in different shades. For some it is science and technology, even though these are there to prove the solid undisputed existence of God who made all things, and is the source of all knowledge. In Noah's days the sins of these people came to a head and God could not bear it anymore and so swung into action. So we read:

"And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And it

repented the Lord that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart. And the Lord said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them. But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord. Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God." (Gen.6:5-9)

It was in the days of Noah that the judgement came like we saw in our earlier meditation. It is interesting and instructive also, to note that Noah was Enoch's grandson. So the righteousness of his grandfather influenced him. He must have learnt about God and saw the result of the righteous walk of his grandfather. Men and women, who know God and walk with God, have the responsibility to show the way to their offspring. That is the greatest gift and legacy you can leave for your children. We see the same thing in the case of Timothy. Paul linked his knowledge of God to his mother and grandmother.

"When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also. Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

(2Tim.1:5-7)

We have also in our meditation, examined this present generation described as the end time generation. We x-rayed this generation and compared it with the past generations, and have concluded from scriptural facts that this present end time generation is passing away because there is a curse and judgement hanging very closely over her. In this chapter we shall look at God's answer to this present end time generation. Out of this crooked and perverse generation, God is raising a new generation. A generation that has never existed since the earth began. It is a brand new generation, glorious and after God's heart, coming to show forth the full plan and purpose of God. Unlike in those other Generations, God is not just raising individuals and families from a particular city or nation. God is raising a body of people from across the entire globe.

*“Out of the ashes of my dying today;
I see the breaking of the brand new day.
In which the name of the Lord alone is glorified.
I see the breaking of the brand new day.”*

Out of the ruins of this present terrible generation that can be rightly described as the worst than the condemned generations, there is hope. God is about to shock the entire world, including the church, especially the harlot church, with the project He has been on for the last over two thousand years. For the world shall see the showcasing of a brand new generation. The generation of Abrahams, Enochs and Noahs; yes the Calebs and Joshuas, the Zadoks etc, put together for His end-time glory.

WHO ARE THIS NEW GENERATION?

Let us start by reading some scriptures that will throw some light to this discourse.

Isaiah 53:1-11. "Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed? For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions; he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned everyone to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken. And he made his grave with the wicked and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities."

Psalms 22:30-31. "A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation. They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this."

Psalms 24:3-6. "Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of His salvation. This is the generation of them that seek him that seek thy face, O Jacob."

We see from the above scriptures that there is a generation that is quite different from the generations we have discussed earlier. This generation is in the midst of the present end-time generation. From Isaiah 53 we see that the Lord came down to suffer, according to the plan of the father, that He might bring forth a generation after Him. God had sort over the generations for a people who will serve Him according to His due order. But in the middle of His ministry He was cut off, and so Isaiah was declaring and asking who would believe the report about what He came to accomplish. Who will declare His activities and life to people of the next generation? He had no earthly relations, because He came from heaven, who then would according to the Jewish custom declare His generation? The word 'declare' as used in that scripture means to discuss, consider or defend. There was therefore no one from heaven rightly related to Him at that realm, to speak for Him as He was condemned. No one to ensure that his generation is not lost and forgotten. But He was a seed that was sown to bring forth many of His kind.

"And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit." John.12:23-24.

Isaiah therefore declared in his prophecy that His seed shall appear that will prolong His days. In other words, He was being sown to bring forth seed that will continue or prolong His generation.

This is what the Spirit moved David to declare in Psa. 22:30-31, that a seed will serve Him. They will serve Him and walk in His footsteps.

Before now, God has sought for a seed that will truly serve Him. But in the loins of the Lord Jesus, He found this seed. This seed shall serve Him, it shall be counted, declared, confirmed as His generation. Then in chapter 24 verses 3 to 6, he declared further that this generation, unlike the previous, will serve the Lord. What an amazing divine work God has done.

So this is a new generation. The generation of Jesus Christ, from His seed. The Lord declared that He came only to do the will of the father and accomplish His plans and purposes. His main pre-occupation was to do the will of the Father.

"Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God. Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldst not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law; Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first that he may establish the second. By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all." - Heb. 10:7-9.

"My meat is to do the will of Him that sent me and to accomplish His work."
John.4:34.

This is therefore the generation that will be careful, like the pattern son, to do the will of the Father. Their main task and preoccupation will be to do the will of the Father, and to accomplish His work upon the earth, for which His indwelling Holy Spirit was sent to dwell with them and enable them accomplish or complete the work of the Lord God.

Characteristics or Features of This Emerging Generation?

Let us check out what the scripture says about this emerging new generation. I Peter.2:8-9 throws some light. For context sake we shall take the reading from verses one to ten:

"Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings, As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:. If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious. To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.. Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious:

and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light:. Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy." (1Peter.2:1-10)

From the first verse we are given an idea of the world, a people and their ways in relation to God, and another people who are a direct opposite of them. They ignored God, despised the foundation He has laid for His desired house. Christ was not recognized by this people who did not care about what He had to offer. But another set of people saw the truth and were drawn to Him, and they embraced it. These are people divinely motivated to make the right choice, because they are to laugh at last since He that was rejected was to be, and has become the most important person; “The chief corner stone.” These people are chosen by God to be part of this His precious house He is building, as lively stones to be used in the construction, sticking to the chief corner stone.

For a proper study of the above verses in view, let us make a comparison with one or two other translations of the bible passage.

“For thus it stands in Scripture: Behold, I am laying in Zion a chosen (honored), precious chief Cornerstone, and he who believes in Him [who adheres to, trusts in, and relies on Him] shall never be disappointed or put to shame. To you then who believe (who adhere to, trust in, and rely on Him) is the preciousness; but for those who disbelieve [it is true], The [very] Stone which the builders rejected has become the main Cornerstone, And, A Stone that will cause stumbling and a Rock that will give [men] offense; they stumble because they disobey and disbelieve [God's] Word, as those [who reject Him] were destined (appointed) to do. But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a dedicated nation; [God's] own purchased, special people, that you may set forth the wonderful deeds and display the virtues and perfections of Him Who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light." (1Peter.2:6-9. Amp.)

" But you are the ones chosen by God, chosen for the high calling of priestly work, chosen to be a holy people, God's instruments to do his work and speak out for him, to tell others of the night-and-day difference he made for you-from nothing to something, from rejected to accepted. "(1 Peter 2:9-10 MSG)

As we begin to examine these scriptures explaining to us the characteristics of members of this emergent generation, it will be expedient to mention that there is the basic entry qualification for all members of this generation. This is simply to be born again. You must have acknowledged your original natural sinful and hopeless position, accept God's redemption plan through the Lord Jesus Christ, and the finished work on Calvary's cross, and then pledge your life to Him. This is the basic entry qualification. The rest however, will depend on how yielded and obedient you are to the direction of the Holy Spirit, God's sole agent for preparing you and enlisting you into this special group of God's delight. So you see, the door is open. But the Spirit of the Living God will continually bear witness with your spirit that you belong to this emergent generation. It does not matter your color, race, nationality, age or sex. Everyone who has met the basic entry requirement is a potential member of this emergent group of people.

Having laid out this, let us go ahead with our examination of what Peter said in this epistle of his about this generation.

A. Chosen Generation

People of this generation are not an accident. They are not a kind of coincidence. It did not just happen. It was a well thought out action of God. He weighed it, planned it and carried it out. This is God's choice out of all others. Do you understand what this really means? It means that there are a lot of generations but God singled out one generation referred to as the end-time generation. And out of this very generation He selected a generation. Out of all the people, the Almighty God chose you. Now this is the picture: In a family, you have children of different dispositions. Every one child is different from the other within this same family. Now it does not matter how badly your sister behaves. It does not matter how ugly or deformed or sickly your brother or sister is. None of these can change the fact that he or she is your relation. You happen to come from one source. If you had a choice you probably would have made sure that your brother or sister is a person you really want to be associated with. Parents do not choose their children. If they have such possibilities they would choose the kind of children they want. But when it comes to adoption of children, the child is not imposed upon the parents. The man and his wife look at the available babies or children and decide by whatever criteria they have, which of them they will adopt. I know of one adopted child of a Christian family. Her mother had told her when she became of age, that she was adopted. And that the reason was that she took her time to make a special choice of her. So she is not just like any other child born into the family. Some children are born into a family that does not really want them, so such families are just enduring the children because they have no other option. But for this one, she was specially chosen out of so many other children. It means she was the best by the parent's standard. This she did to avoid a situation where somebody would one day call the child and make her feel she is not as important or valued as those biologically born into the family. And actually it happened that her fellow children made a passing statement to her when they quarreled, "after all you are but an adopted child. You don't even know your real parents." That did not mean anything to her. She just boldly and gladly responded; " Yes! I am not like you. Your parents have no choice but to keep you, even though they don't like you. For me, my mummy and daddy chose me because they like me and wanted me. I am a special child, not just any child." That shut them up.

Well, for those who have issues about adoption, this should encourage you and also serve as a lesson. Adopted children are as special as your biological one. In fact those adopted ones are very special because they are chosen. You know God is the first parent to adopt children. We had nothing in common with Him; lost in sin and trespasses, alienated from the common wealth of Israel the chosen race. But God paid the greatest price to adopt us into His family, and made us members of the common wealth of Israel. Partakers of God's divine nature. Can you beat that? So, Christians are actually the only ones qualified to adopt children. Like Father like son. If we consider the love and care we receive from our Father who adopted us unto Himself, then we will be in a position to adopt children and take good care of them. You don't have to be childless to adopt children. There are so many children crying for proper attention and many of them are daily being adopted by people who know nothing about God and sometimes they get badly abused. God will want Christians to go and adopt those helpless children and give them a sense of belonging and show them true love. When you adopt children, your well of love gets enlarged and you begin to behave like your heavenly father. My dear wife and I have many lovely adopted daughters and sons. And we love them very much and make them feel a great sense of belonging in the family. We feel great joy doing this. We were like abandoned and even rejected children, spiritually and God came for us, and today we have experienced love and know what true love is and therefore must share it. Adoption is originally God's idea not men. He instituted it so there cannot be anything wrong with it. Amen!

"For He foreordained us destined us, planned in love for us to be adopted as His own children through Jesus Christ, in accordance with the purpose of His will because it pleased Him and was His kind intent" - Eph. 1:5.(Amp.)

That looks like a bit of digression there, but I believe the Spirit of God wants this to come out. The digression is therefore worth it. Now let us get back to our discussion.

So Peter here shows how special this generation in question is to God that He chose it for His divine purpose, which we shall also touch a little bit later.

The Greek word translated chosen is 'ek-lek-tos' meaning: Elect, Favourite. So this group is God's favorite. If you are part of this very generation, Peter says you are God's favorite. Better believe this.

B. Royal Priesthood.

This generation is made up of a fraternity of priests. People who are kingly in nature. This is what Peter meant. It means that this people are chosen to function as kings and also as priests. They will do the service of the priestly office as well as that of a king. In the book of Revelations chapter 5 and in verse 10 we read;

"And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth." - Rev. 5:10.

These words were first spoken to the children of Israel, God's chosen race. God spoke to Moses concerning this people. And so in Exodus chapter 19 verse 6 we read thus:

"And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation [consecrated, set apart to the worship of God]. These are the words you shall speak to the Israelites." - Exod. 19:6. Amp.

And hundreds of years later the prophet Isaiah prophesied the same words to us again:

"But you shall be called the priests of the Lord; people will speak of you as the ministers of our God. You shall eat the wealth of the nations, and the glory [once that of your captors] shall be yours" - Isa. 61:6 (Amp)

The Exodus portion fulfilled in Israelites is just the type and shadow of the reality. This one now, the newly emerging generation, is the reality and the fulfillment of that word in its fullness. We know that every word of God has three dimensions of meaning. The natural, we find in the children of Israel; The spiritual dimension is fulfilled in the church among the believers, as expressed by Peter in his epistle. But the fullness is coming. It is this emergent generation we are examining now. These people are patterned after the Lord Jesus who is a priestly king. We know also that David, whose lineage through which the Lord Jesus came, also functioned as a priestly king. These ones therefore shall operate and serve after the order of Melchizedek. This is the priesthood that will serve the purpose of God. They are the Lord's delight. Like the Zadok priesthood of old, they shall stand with the Lord at all times and in every circumstance and situation. These set of priests stood their ground with God when all the other priests in Israel went astray with the rest of Israel. God, well pleased with them, made a perpetual injunction concerning them. They are the only ones allowed to draw near to Him to serve Him specially, apart from serving the people. But the rest that strayed with the people, after repenting, they were to limit their service to the people they strayed away with. They are not permitted to come closer to God. The former are a type of this generation of priests emerging. These ones will never fail. In 1982 the Lord spoke to us in a gathering under a very heavy anointing, and He said to us that 'the generation He is raising shall walk perfectly before Him. He said they will not make mistakes'. Now I believe He was speaking concerning this emergent generation under examination in this write up. So many people who are called as priest unto God have compromised their status. They have gone awhoring like the Israelite priests of old. Many have even led the people of God into idolatry. God will no longer tolerate this situation. On 14 May 2013, precisely by 1:30 pm, the Lord spoke to me saying; that He would repeat what He did to Eli and his household on the priests who have perpetually desecrated His altar and led the people into idolatrous sins. He said many of His priests have not only perverted the altar but have encouraged His people to do same. There is a serious call for all those that bear the ark of the Lord to depart from iniquity now before it is too late.

Apart from their priestly functions, these people will function as kings. They will wield the authority of God as kings. They shall issue instructions in the name of the Lord and their words shall stand. They shall be able to attend to every need of the people. Their words shall be power-packed because there is power in the words of the king. The glory of the King of kings shall rest on them and they shall rule with great wisdom and knowledge of the Divine. These ones shall never be beggarly in any of their dealings. They are divinely anointed to rule and reign on the earth. That is the plan of God. This body or generation of kings shall have all resources at their disposal. Nothing shall stand before them. There is nothing that can take them unawares.

C. Holy Nation.

The Greek word translated in this passage as "holy" is the word 'hagios', pronounced 'hag'-ee-os', meaning Sacred, Physically Pure, Morally Blameless or Consecrated. Rom. 3:8-10 tells us that none is righteous or holy. Only one person has ever been certified to fulfill this description; he is Jesus Christ the pattern son. But He commands us to be holy and perfect just like our heavenly Father. This is because the plan of God is to reproduce His pattern son in His fullness. This is not naturally possible. But what is impossible with men is possible with God, for with God, nothing can be impossible. (Luke.1:37).

That is why Peter prophesied by the Spirit concerning this generation of people, that they are a nation of holy people. A holy race, a generation of those who have been made holy by His Holiness. The word 'Nation' means a people or a race. These people are not natural people. They are supernatural because they have been stripped of their naturalness, or humanity. Now how did this happen? How can this be possible? Nicodemus asked similar question because the natural mind can never understand spiritual things. I pray the Lord quickens your spiritual eyes of understanding concerning this matter, in Yeshua's great Name. Amen!

These ones are true sons of their father. They carry His gene and so by default they are holy. They cannot but live and walk holy because it is in their blood. These ones no longer have their natural blood flowing through their veins and controlling them. The life of anything is in the blood. So the life that anybody lives flows from the blood. The natural blood of every human originates from the first Adam who failed through sin. That blood runs through the descendants of Adam which simply means the entire human race has the sinful blood of Adam flowing in them. But once a person is born again by the virtue of his acceptance of the work of redemption that the Lord Jesus accomplished on the cross, a change begins to take place. The complete change depends on how far this is appropriated by the individual Christian.

This chosen generation has their original natural blood changed through a divine procedure by God. The blood of Jesus is transfused into them, expelling the blood of Adam they originally possessed. I refer to this process as the Divine or supernatural Exchange Blood Transfusion (SEBT).

The original natural blood became contaminated after our fore-parents ate the fruit the serpent gave to them. That infused death into the blood and got it contaminated. In medicine, when a child is born she might develop jaundice after three days. This is referred to as physiological neonatal jaundice, and can be corrected by placing the baby under a phototherapy unit where light is used to get rid of the jaundice. In the absence of the gadget, mere placing the baby under early morning or late evening mild sun clears the jaundice. When the light of the gospel from the sun of righteousness shines on a sinner's heart, a healing and a change takes place. But in some cases the baby develops jaundice within the first two days of life. This in most cases is very dangerous because this must be as a result of the fact that the bilirubin level has risen and this is caused by an infection which when investigated, depending on the bilirubin level may only be treated by carrying out an Exchange Blood Transfusion (EBT). This is done by the means of a two-way tap which drains out the infected or contaminated blood while replacing with another clean blood that has been screened. After this is done the blood of the baby now has definitely become different from what was originally there. The composition of the new blood affects the system of that baby.

You may then ask why those who are born again still grapple with sin and sickness in their body. Now the EBT is a process that takes time to be accomplished. It cannot be rushed otherwise it could be fatal. The baby can go into an anemic heart failure if the entire blood is drained out. Remember it is first that which is natural, then that which is spiritual and finally that which is the fullness. So it is a process that gradually expels the sin laden blood while replacing with the pure uncontaminated one until there is a complete exchange. But you see, an EBT does not remove every blood in the baby's body. Doctors can explain that. What really caused the problem in the first place is that if the blood of the child happens to be incompatible with that of the mother. It means that the baby has the father's blood and that the father's blood is not compatible with that of the wife. If during the process of birth the blood mixes and the mother's negative blood mixing with the child's positive blood creates a problem. An EBT will now use blood compatible with the baby's mother's to neutralize that of the baby until the bilirubin level comes down to a tolerable point. Now this is a temporary measure. The child after some time will now begin to produce his original blood that restores the original uncontaminated one. This will depend on the proper functioning of the bone marrow to produce the pure blood. In the same way, to completely do away with the fallen nature, depends on the diligence and the level of yieldedness of the Christian to allow the work of the Spirit in his life to be completed.

This exchange puts the blood of Jesus which is His life into the Christian so that his life becomes that of Jesus. Everything about him becomes just like the pattern son. There are Christians who are living a victorious life in Christ because they are making spiritual effort as they yield to the Spirit of God. But those who are not yielded and are lazy in carrying out spiritual exercises, will experience a kind of fluctuation in their living so that they manifest Christ sometimes, and other times the adamic nature overtakes.

Now for this emergent generation, they not only would have had their SEBT successfully completed. But because of the special assignment the Lord has designed for them, the Lord does a complete Bone Marrow Transplant.

This is how the Spirit used this to quicken an understanding to me. You know that sicklers' problem is that the 'S' cell is produced to fight the malaria parasite. In some cases double 'S' cells are produced that now in an attempt to deal with the parasite now destroys the blood corpuscles, weakening the immune system and makes it difficult for them to fight infections. Now one of the ways to help the sickler is blood transfusion to replace the red blood cells destroyed by the sickle cells. When there is haemolysis, the blood level becomes too low to effectively carry oxygen to the brain and other parts of the body for proper functioning of the body system. The immune system is too depressed to effectively fight any form of infection or disease invasion of the body. So blood transfusion helps to stabilize the system. This of course is just a temporary palliative procedure. It does not bring about a permanent healing of the sickle cell anemia. The full or permanent treatment now being effectively used is the 'Bone Marrow' Transplant. The bone marrow is produced in the bone and it is the bone marrow that produces blood.

A healthy bone marrow produces healthy blood. In this very procedure, a healthy bone marrow of the sickler's sibling that is compatible with his or hers is extracted. This is transplanted into him. This is a deadly process that can be fatal. What happens is that the sickler's bone marrow is completely destroyed and replaced with the one extracted from his compatible relation. This now begins to produce healthy blood that enhances good health and well being. This process changes the gene of the patient. It is the bone marrow that is responsible for the blood genotype of every individual. There has been many successful change of former sicklers' genotype from 'SS' to either 'AA', 'AS' etc through the Bone Marrow transplant.

By the experiences God will cause this set of people to pass through, God will perform a Divine Bone Marrow Transplant. (DBMT) Just like He did in the first Adam, God carries out as it were, a very major surgery to completely wipe away the adamic nature. He takes the bone marrow of their elder brother Yeshua to replace theirs after destroying the unhealthy bone marrow. Their DNA automatically changes from that of the first Adam to that of the second Adam. They become life giving spirits as against just living souls. The great physician who performed the first successful surgery of transplanting some of Adam's ribs into Eve, still performs such complicated surgery as the DBMT to achieve His end-time purposes.

Those who have undergone this transplant successfully, are now carrying the holy blood of Yeshua, they become a holy generation. The sin nature is completely destroyed and holiness and righteousness become their 'natural' way of life. They will not struggle to please God. They will have no appetite for sin or unrighteousness.

This Divine or Supernatural Bone Marrow Transplant (DBMT) is therefore the process of replacing the natural blood that was contaminated with sin, by the pure, sinless blood of Yeshua. SBMT which is carried out by the great surgeon Himself, Yahweh, changes the DNA of the recipient because it terminates every natural genetic composition of the recipient, making him able to reign in life. Death is abolished and immortality sets in.

This is brought about by the operation of the creative word of Yahweh, which has the ability to create and recreate man. The word comes into man through hearing and absorbing the ministered word, which quickens, revitalizes the mortal body of the child of God by the Spirit of God that comes into him.

"But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you." (Rom.8:11)

This holy generation or race or nation will be Jesus Christ personified on the earth. This is what the Lord is about to showcase.

D. Peculiar People

This new generation is peculiar to God and in every sense. The Greek word interpreted peculiar actually means Acquired, personally purchased, Special and Distinct. It then means that this set of people is very different from all others. Why? They are God's special select. There is something about them that no other person has. They have been translated from one kingdom to the other.

"who have called you out of darkness into His marvelous light." (1Pet.2:9).

"Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son?" (Col. 1:13).

These people have been uprooted, transplanted, from one location to another permanently. From darkness and all that pertain to darkness, into light. From a kingdom ruled and controlled by the god of this world, Satan, to the kingdom of light where Jesus rules and reigns. A good illustration of this translation or movement will be the natural process of transplant of plants in farming. Now where I live, we have a little space in front of the house where we have a few crops growing. We also have a small integrated farm on the outskirts of the city. I got some seeds of Moringa Oleifera which I planted in front of my house. Now this plant germinated and began to grow. This plant can turn out to be a very big tree when it grows. One day I decided to move the plant to where I had originally planned to plant it; in the farm. Where it was growing is not suitable for it to adequately become a fruitful tree I intended it to be. So I uprooted the plant from my house and took it to the farm and replanted it. Now that plant is now a fairly big tree. That tree is now situated in my farm permanently. There is now nothing that links it with the frontage of my house. It gets nourishment from the farm. Its functions are now within the farm; an entirely different environment with better nourishment. Now it is yielding desired benefits for me. I can now get from it Moringa leaves from where I derive Moringa powder and Tea. I also can get Moringa seed, and if I desire the use of the bark, I get it. That was a transplant or translation. When through the divine work of redemption, a man is saved, what has really happened is that his status changes. His citizenship changes and a new law now control his existence. Every kingdom had a king or ruler, and a set of rules that govern the citizens. Those laws are binding on everyone within that kingdom. The rules and regulations of another kingdom where he originally was before he was acquired by the new king of another kingdom, no longer applies to him.

" for the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the law of sin and death." (Rom. 8:2)

One law, a higher one overrides or repeals another and one kingdom overrules another.

This generation of people is peculiar because the Lord has by His divine bone marrow transplant changed their entire composition. Now according to Joel chapter 2, there has never been a set of people like this, and there will never be any other set of people like them. These people carry Yeshua's DNA far different from that every other person carries. That makes this generation peculiar. We shall yet look into this aspect later in our discussion. So even though this people belong to a natural family, their genealogy has changed. They are not counted according to their natural ancestry. Their ancestry has changed and their lineage now stem from that of Yeshua. They have been severed from every earthly ancestral link. Even though they dwell in the midst of a race, a city, a nation or a culture, they do not belong to them. Just like we Christians are in the world, but we are not of the world.

If you are a member of this great generation, you will feel a prompting in your spirit. It is just the same way you feel a witness in your spirit that you are a child of God. The bible says in the book of Romans chapter 8 verse 16 that "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:" Even though you may not see any prominent physical changes in you, you will somehow feel a prompting. There will be that urgency in the spirit put there by the Spirit of God. You come to believe as true, what the Lord has said concerning you. The Lord says you are Special. You are not like all others. You are not the same as that your Christian colleague in the office or your classmate in school. You are different from that your business colleague. You are not the same as anybody else in your village. God says you are an uncommon specie. Your reasoning, thinking, actions and reactions got to be different. Everything about you is special because you are special. If God says you are special then you are special. This generation is emerging and will soon be made manifest.

Chapter Four

GOD'S PURPOSE FOR THIS NEW GENERATION

Why is God raising up a new generation of people? What does He have in mind in carrying out this exercise? What does He intend to achieve? Is it really necessary when His word has stated that His children will wield His power in these end time. There are many committed Christians who have the potential to do miraculous exploits for God in His name. Is God not just wasting His time and unnecessarily duplicating efforts?

The first attempt in answering these questions is the fact that the Lord does just what He wants to do, when He wants, where He wants and how He wants. He is God. He is the one who lifted up His hands and said, " I am the Lord, I live forever, and there is none like Me." He is the creator of the world and all things in it. The world was created for His pleasure. It is His and He has the right to do whatever He likes with it. He can wipe out the entire race if they consistently fail to fulfill His purpose for their existence.

God has a plan and a purpose that must be fulfilled. Over the years God has pursued His plans and purposes and is very determined to accomplish them. Man has consistently, due to the manipulation of the enemy of God and His people, resisted and tried to derail the plan of God over the ages. But we are told in the scriptures that His purposes are everlasting. When God brought out the children of Israel, His chosen race, out of Egyptian bondage, His purpose was that they might worship and serve Him. (Exod.5:1⁺⁺). God was ready to wipe them out in the wilderness because they were consistently working against His purpose for bringing them out. Eventually all of them, except Caleb and Joshua, perished in the wilderness. When Noah's world failed to fulfill the purpose for which God let them exist, God was disappointed and regretted their existence and He went ahead to destroy them raising a new generation with Noah. All through the ages, this has been the pattern of God. In this end-time, God will not but make sure that His purpose is perfectly accomplished.

In the United States, the armed forces are made up of different agents that are effective in carrying out their responsibility of security. But it became necessary to raise a special squad out of the celebrated U.S. Marine (NAVY) who are specially trained to accomplish special assignments. This special squad referred to as the U.S. NAVY SEAL is made up of people drawn from the various arms of the Naval force and given a special training. Even though they all already had training to serve in the deferent sectors, they had to now receive the deadliest training ever. Not all who enlisted make it to the end to qualify to serve in this squad. This squad is peculiar in every way. They cannot be compared with the rest of the military. Their level of discipline is far much higher than the others, and so is their equipment. They are trained to do the impossible. This is a good picture of what God is doing. Man just taps into God's idea and we know that the natural things are but a shadow of the real thing, the spiritual. This newly emerging generation can properly be referred to as God's Special End-Time Squad. The great privilege they will enjoy in the manifestation of the power and glory of the Almighty will be directly proportional to the amount of training they will undergo under God. They will literally pass through fire like gold being purified. They will know denials and deprivations. Sacrifice will be a life style. The Lord said, "gather unto me my saints, who have made covenant with me by sacrifice" (Psalm. 50:5) God has a special purpose that must be accomplished at this time of the end. The regular soldiers of the cross, the 'normal born again' Christians in their present state cannot handle the task ahead. Those who cannot stand the footmen in war fare definitely cannot attempt the horse men. God wants a crop of soldiers that will rubbish the horsemen. These are people that will make nonsense of the technological breakthroughs of man that are causing man to blaspheme God and even try to prove the non-existence of God. Hell is about to unleash the worst terror upon the earth. All the genetic engineering and the metal man invention are all part of the preparation for the coming confrontation. This is more than the horse men. God is therefore raising the special breed that will put man and the devil in their rightful place. Satan and his cohorts are holding the entire creation hostage and the plans are in advanced stage for the emergence of the one world government, paving the way for the anti Christ. The so called new age is a perversion aimed at deceiving and confusing people especially Christians as regards the new heaven and earth the Lord has promised.

Now let us look at what Peter put forward as the purpose of God for raising this new generation of people. In the later portion of verse nine of first Peter chapter two we read:

"that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hat called you out of darkness into his Marvelous light." (kjb+)

*"that you may set forth the wonderful deeds and display the virtues and perfections of Him Who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light."
(AMP)*

Simply put, this generation of people has the task of bringing God to the world. They will finish the work God's first born among many brethren started. They will manifest the nature of God upon the earth. They will restore order in the world that has completely gone crazy and out of control. A world where anarchy and all kinds of wickedness rule. Where every man does what seems right in his own eyes. They will restore discipline in a perverse world, and peace to the troubled world.

Execution Of God's Judgement

This generation will execute the judgment already passed by God upon the wicked.

"Let the high praises of God be in their throats and a two-edged sword in their hands. To wreak vengeance upon the nations and chastisement upon the peoples. To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron. To execute upon them the judgment written. He [the Lord] is the honor of all His saints. Praise the Lord! (Hallelujah!)." - Psa.149:6-9 (Amp.)

America has boasted about their latest war plane that can land undetectable and the technology is exclusive to them. Russia has also boasted of their new missile that is undetectable by any nation's anti missile. The Arabs and the Islamic movements are boasting of taking over the world. The current activities in the world are very frightening. Man feels he is fully in control and able to eliminate any form of opposition or challenge. But this new generation shall teach these people a lesson. They shall teach principalities and powers in all their manifestations, the manifold wisdom of God.

Isaiah says the mighty sword of the Lord is strong to punish the leviathan in the midst of the sea. Our weapons of warfare are not carnal but are mighty through God. These people, this generation is God's end-time weapon of war. No power in hell or upon the earth can stop or withstand them. They are the mighty sword of the Lord that will punish Leviathan (Satanic powers) in the midst of the sea (Humanity)

Joel prophesied about these people. They are God's great army:

“ A great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations. A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.. The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness.. They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march everyone on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks: Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk everyone in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded. They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.. The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:. And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?" - Joel 2:2-11.

These are obviously super humans. They are not ordinary people. They are a special breed, specially made for a special assignment. They will by their activities establish the rule of God upon the earth. They are a fearless but fearful looking people. Like Elijah, they shall execute judgement upon false prophets who claim to be God's servants and are daily deceiving gullible innocent and unsuspecting children of God. They will not only deal with the idol worshippers, the occultist etc, that have almost over run the world, but also they will deal with the priests and prophets of God who have sold out to worship idols and even led others into idolatry. They will be taught the true righteousness of God.

Deliverance Of Creation

“ For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope,. Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body." - (Rom.8:19-24)

Paul the apostle of God, speaking by the Holy Spirit brought to light the plan of the Lord God Almighty as it concerns His creation. Our daily experiences and the worldwide news about the nations of the world, clearly reveal that the condition painted by Paul is true. Evil forces are holding in bondage the entire creation. Human beings, animals and even inanimate objects are all crying out in their different ways for help. Paul says in this passage that all of these entities are impatiently in near frustration waiting for a group of people for their redemption and deliverance. The Almighty God in His wisdom allowed this enslavement or bondage to prove to man that he is mere man and lacks the ability to help himself. In an attempt to help himself man gets himself into much deeper bondage. The devil and his cohorts are having a good laugh in ignorance. They think they have won and that God cannot do anything more. They believed they have succeeded in deceiving man to believe God either has lost His power or does not really exist. But He that sitteth in heaven, the lofty one laughs at the foolishness of man and his deceiver, the man of sin.

"Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing. The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision. Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure." - (Psa. 2:1-5)

God has a plan to deliver His entire creation from bondage through the instrumentality of the new generation He is raising on earth. This special generation of people is about to manifest. God is about to reveal them. The word translated manifestation in the Romans. 8 scripture is 'Apokalupsis', meaning: to be revealed, to be unveiled, show forth, appearing, revelation.

God has been preparing this brand of soldiers over the years. They have been under the incubation of the Spirit and they are about to break forth. Through their activities backed by the Spirit. People will be delivered from ignorance and deception as they hear the true word of God able to set free. The deliverance is all- encompassing. Be it demonic operation, poverty, sickness or sin. Creation will know liberty of the sons of God because they will be ushered into a place of true worship of the true living God of heaven. The nature of the operations of this generation of people is also expressed in Revelation chapter 11, depicted by the ministry of “the two witnesses”.

Here we read:

“And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth. {I will give...: or, I will give unto my two witnesses that they may prophesy

These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

These have power to shut heaven that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven. {of men: Gr. names of men}

The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, the kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign forever and ever. And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshiped God"- (Rev.11:3-14)

Let us examine from verse 3. A thousand two hundred and three score days is the same as three and a half years. The Lord ministered for this period before He was caught up, according to Isaiah. The two witnesses will minister for same period to complete the ministry of Jesus. This is very significant. Who really are the two witnesses? From the above passage they look like Moses and Elijah, but in another look they seem to be like Jesus. What this means is simply that God will lift them up to the stature of Christ. This generation of people God is raising shall be lifted up to the stature of Christ. Zachariah in chapter 4 from verse 1, give us an enlightenment concerning the two witnesses.

“And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep, And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?

Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts. {might: or, army.}" Zach.4:1-6.

In verse 4 of Revelations chapter 11 we are told that the two witnesses are the two olive trees standing before God. And here Zachariah tells us what the two olive trees are. They represent the Word and the Spirit of God. And of course we know that these are prophetic expressions that should not be interpreted or understood naturally. The two olive trees; the Spirit and the Word are pouring golden oil into the bowl in Zachariah's vision. Now the seven candle sticks standing individually will give way to a big bowl where the constant supply of oil empties. Now the two olive trees, the two witnesses who are the newly emerging generation will supply oil to the bowl; the church in the dark hour of tribulation already commencing.

In verse 5 we read that whoever tries to hurt them shall be devoured by fire that proceeds from their mouth. They will demonstrate the power of the spoken word. Jesus is the Word made flesh and Elijah demonstrated this power of the spoken word.

1kings 18:37-38. "Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.

Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God."

Elijah by the spoken word called down fire to consume the sacrifice and this proved to the people that indeed Jehovah is God. In another occasion, in 2kings chapter 1 from verse 10 we see another significant demonstration of this power by Elijah.

"And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down quickly.

And Elijah answered and said unto them, if I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight.

Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

And the angel of the LORD said unto Elijah, Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him unto the king.

And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to enquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron, is it not because there is no God in Israel to enquire of his word? therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

So he died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram reigned in his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son.- 2Kings.1:10-17.

Here the king sent soldiers to arrest Elijah and to hurt him and fire came and consumed the two sets of fifty men. Then the captain of the next set learnt a lesson and submitted to him. Well, Elijah went ahead to speak the word and pronounced judgment upon the king and it happened just the way he said. This is the power of the spoken word. Now the emerging generation; this special squad God is raising shall demonstrate the power of the spoken word. They shall demonstrate in a greater dimension all the miracles of the past brought forth by the prophets and the apostles put together. They shall work and walk in the anointing of the Christ. In verse 7 of Revelations 11, we see something that looks ordinarily as a defeat.

“And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them. And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

Rev.11:7-11.

The beast makes war with the two witnesses and killed them. Now this is simply a way for them to demonstrate the power of resurrection. Their bodies laid on the street for three and a half and the power of resurrection came upon them. This is similar to what happened to the Lord. Satan and the scribes and Pharisees rejoiced after the crucifixion of Jesus. But after three days in the tomb He was raised up and He ascended into heaven. This people are raised up after three days and half and they ascended. Jesus said I can lay down my life and take it up again. These people laid down their lives and got it back again.

This generation of people shall have the ability to resurrect if they are killed. They will abolish death and demystify death. Death shall no more be a torment to the people of God. The world will be stunned at the demonstration of power by these people.

Ministry To God's People

Part of the assignment of this generation of people will be to minister to God's people, spiritually, physically, materially and otherwise. Because they shall be problem solvers and solution providers, people will look up to them for direction and for help in diverse ways.

An example that comes to mind is that in 2Kings chapters 4 and 6 respectively, where Elisha had to intervene in the crisis that arose among the sons of the prophets. In chapter 4 they had gone to gather all manner of leaves to prepare food and some of those mixtures of herbs brought about food poisoning. They cried out to Elisha and he miraculously brought healing. He also brought about the miracle of multiplicity of bread when they wondered how a few loaves of bread could feed the multitude.

Now we see the Lord Jesus perform similar miracles in the gospels, confirming this as divine pattern for the sons of God. We can apply these both at the natural and spiritual levels. Many servants of God are feeding God's people with poison as a result of the mixture of teaching from the bible and the occult eastern religion. Many children of God are spiritually very sick and the church is very sick unto death. But the ministry of this emergent generation shall take care of this ugly situation. They shall bring forth a corrective ministry that shall bring healing to God's people and the church. Many ministers of the gospel today fall into the category of the sons of these sons of the prophets. Help shall come from God's special squad to be revealed.

In chapter 6 we read about the borrowed axe head that got lost as they tried to fell wood to enlarge their place of dwelling. Many pastors and ministers have been overtaken by the worldly spirit of competition and expansionism. Everybody's aim is to be known to possess the biggest church auditorium or cathedral that seats thousands of people. They want to enlarge their mansions. They are no longer patient to wait for the mansions made of gold which they have variously preached about. To achieve this many have gone to borrow axe heads which can represent financial help from 'Egypt': banks, financiers, armed robbers, government, politicians etc. It also represents supernatural powers from sources other than God, just to stay afloat. Many have gotten themselves into terrible unholy alliances with occultists, and some have gone through all kinds of rituals to remain relevant through performing miracles (lying wonders) and getting many members, as well as flowing in wealth to be able to afford affluence. No wonder now the mark of church growth and prosperity is the number of vehicles and private jets each General Overseer/Founder has and how many thousands of members he has to financially maintain them. All these are some of the madness that this emergent generation will heal. People will have to return the borrowed axe heads and those who will not, will have to perish with their benefactors.

This generation of people shall operate in perfect gifts of healings that will bring respite to the people of God who are presently afflicted with all kinds of incurable terminal diseases. Cancer has been ravaging God's people as if there is no difference between them and the unbelievers. They will repeat the accounts in Hebrews 11. They will raise the dead and restore joy and gladness to God's people as well as the others, so that people can through their ministry turn to the living God.

Chapter Five

GOD IS DETERMINED

So much is going on in the world today. So many people are discouraged, disappointed and disillusioned with what is going on in the world today. Many Christians are losing faith, and are beginning to doubt what they have believed. They are beginning to wonder whether they have missed it. Some who have shunned the world for Christ are gradually returning back to the world so that they do not miss out totally. Christian leaders are betraying not only their fellow brethren, but the Almighty God, for worldly riches and fame. So the people of God are ridiculed, the name of the Lord is blasphemed. The devil seems to be gaining the upper hand, and men's hearts are failing them. They now, more than ever, doubt the existence of God. Science fictions and realities are further strengthening man's doubt about the existence of God. This is the devil's ultimate goal. Men and women of the occult are waxing stronger and bolder by the day and wickedness is manifested everywhere more than ever before. Man has gone real crazy. Even before the revelation of the beast, the man of sin, the Antichrist, who is to be revealed in this end-time, his forerunners are already demonstrating his powers with great lying wonders. Many Christians no longer trust in the ability of God to heal their infirmities or solve their problems. They see how evil and evil men prosper as though it is profitable to do evil. Sodomy is sweeping through the entire world and world leaders are declaring it a crime to speak out against such evil. Men, both young and old, are being overtaken by the spirit of rape across the globe. Old women, young ladies, married and unmarried, even small girls of five years old are being raped on a daily basis, and many lose their lives too in addition. People no longer have regard for life. Christians watch helplessly as their loved ones are beheaded by wicked Islamists. They cry and say; "God are you really there and watching all these happen and do nothing? Are you now powerless? Where are the miracles of deliverance we read in the scriptures; are they true or mere fairy tales?" Some have resorted to seeking help from the beast. The entire world has declared war against the Lord and His church. To promote atheism, Islam, Buddhism, Rosicrucianism, etc is fine and will raise no dust, but a mention of the name 'Jesus' any where even in the course of private discussion in an office, a school or any public place could earn you imprisonment in Europe and America, not just in Islamic nations. So the line is now clearly drawn, and nobody can be in doubt about the gang up against the Creator by His creation.

Many new deadly weapons are being invented every day by the world powers in preparation for the Armageddon war. Russia with her allies, and America with her own allies, are fighting for supremacy and for who rules the world. The Arab League on the other hand is mobilizing to take over the world. Man is coming to his fullness and feeling self dependent with the ability to do virtually everything; proving that man does not need any God to survive or exist. So owes nothing to God at all.

The Ishmaelites in the spirit, the children of the bond woman (moslems) want Israel in the spirit, the descendants of Isaac (Christians) wiped off the earth. In the same way The Ishmaelites in the natural (the Arabs) want the annihilation of Israel as a people on the earth.

There are a lot of questions in the minds of people, Christians inclusive. And unfortunately the church in her present state has no answers to them. And yet we have heard that Christ through the church is the answer to the world. The church now seems very far from being glorious, but God said;

“I will build my church....” - Matt.16:18.

“God is not a man that He should lie, neither the son of man that He should repent: Hath He said, and shall He not make it good?” - Num.23:19.

“Yea, let God be true, but every man a liar;...” - Rom.3:4. And we must remember that “ The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some men count slackness....” - 2Pet.3:9

We have seen from our discussions in previous chapters, that even though the generations up till now, and the present church, have failed God. They have not measured up to expectation, and it is easy to conclude from history that there is no such people that can measure up and so all we have been reading and hearing about the perfect man is not possible. If this is true, then Jesus' mission on earth was futile and His death was a bad investment by God. Then you and I are of all men most miserable. (1Cor. 15:19) But God has a plan and a purpose which are eternal, and God is Determined to bring them to pass shortly. God has been consistent and systematically working out His purposes out as day succeeds today.

God is working His purpose out, As day succeeds today. God is working His purpose out, And the time is drawing near. Nearer and nearer draws the time; The time that shall surely be. When the earth shall be filled with the glory of God; As the waters cover the sea.

God has been working and preparing His perfect man; the many-member man child that will manifest His glory upon the earth; The true answer to the world, that is being awaited. God as it were, with the host of heaven is standing up to finish up this building so that He shall be satisfied to relax and enjoy the fruit of His labors. "He shall see the fruit of the travail of His soul and be satisfied;.." Isa.53:11(Amp.)

*God is raising a people of power
He is making a people of praise.
That shall move through this earth
by His Spirit and will glorify
His precious name.*

Where Do You Stand?

You dear reader, where do you stand in all of these things? Do you see yourself a part of this emerging generation? Or have you already counted yourself out? Do you have an inner desire to be in this company of God's people? Then believe what God has said concerning you and make yourself available to him to work in you and prepare you. Get enlisted, the door is open. Everything will depend on your desire and resolve to press forward into it. A few weeks ago the Lord showed a revelation in which soldiers are being re-enlisted and retrained for a special assignment. They are made to drop the weapons they have been used to at the gate of the training camp. Their uniforms are also changed and then they can come into the training in the use of an entirely new form of weapons. Only those who answer the call to the camp, and approach the gate, discover that the gates are actually open to prospective recruits.

“If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.”(2Tim. 2:21)

This is the time to present yourself to God as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to Him; A whole burnt offering. (Rom.12:1-3) This is the time to follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth. (Rev.4:4)

It is the time to align yourself with God, for the time is short, very short.

Get away from man's rebellious religious order and come into God's divine order. Come through the golden altar of incense and make the ultimate sacrifice that propels you to break through the veil into the place of oneness with God. God is in this hour causing to be gathered unto Him all those who have cut a covenant with Him by sacrifice: that they may come into His place of power and glory, for His name's sake. The time is NOW! There is time no more.

There is no doubt that we are living in the end-time, and that infact we are presently living on borrowed time.

The world is living in a most troubulous time ever. The judgement of God is hanging over this perverse generation. Man has come to his pick in wickedness, dispising the living God. Satanists and the occultists have seemingly taken over the world, presenting reasons for the world to reject the existence of God. Children of God are overtaken with fear, doubt and unbelief. The church is too weak to bring solution to world's overwhelming problems. Many servants of God have strayed away from Him.

But in the midst of all these, God is consistently bringing to pass His plans and purposes upon the earth. He is about to shock the world as He manifests His End-Time Special Squad. A new generation that will bring back sanity to the world and establish the rule of God.

Paul tells us in Romans 8: 19 that even the whole creation (all nature) waits expectantly and longs earnestly for God's sons to be made known (the revealing, the disclosing of their sonship) They are about to be revealed by God. They are THE NEW GENERATION. They are emerging. Watch out!
